

Our Capability

AeroPM is a sovereign Australian Defence Industry company providing professional consulting services through our dedicated, passionate, high-calibre personnel, working in multidisciplinary teams to achieve quality results for our clients.

Our People and Recruitment

AeroPM aims to recruit and place high performing talent into key project roles including Project Managers, Project Engineering Managers, ILSMs, T&E Managers, Certification Managers and Commercial manager roles. Our people will provide both the strategic and tactical skills to ensure your project achieves success.

We surveyed our workforce about their transition

88%

of our workforce have transitioned directly from a Defence career into employment with AeroPM

41%

of our workforce are currently employed under flexible workplace arrangements with their client

100%

of our workforce are satisfied with their work/life balance compared to their previous employment

Our Value Proposition

Akin to the traits of a hummingbird, AeroPM personnel will provide your project stability in a high-paced and complex environment. AeroPM integrates relevant experience and technical expertise to provide exemplary customer-focused professional services across your program's lifecycle.

Our Commitment

AeroPM is committed to providing an innovative, motivating, safe and fair environment where each member of our team is encouraged and provided with every opportunity to succeed. In return we seek dedicated, professional team members who support the culture of AeroPM.

